

HELIX 3001

HexArmor® + uvex

Innovation intertwined with safety. That's the DNA of the Helix® Series. The Helix® 3001 features a high-comfort 13-gauge silversilk and fiberglass blend knit shell and back-of-hand IR-X® Impact Exoskeleton™ with level 2 impact protection.

The padded palm absorbs impact and vibration and the sandy nitrile palm coating provides increased grip and abrasion resistance in oily or dry applications. The 3001 also features touchscreen capabilities.
